

A warm, inviting photograph of a coffee shop scene. In the center, a white ceramic cup filled with a latte and a heart-shaped latte art sits on a matching saucer. A silver spoon rests on the saucer. To the right, a burlap sack is tipped over, spilling a large pile of dark, roasted coffee beans onto a light-colored wooden surface. In the background, a glass of milk is visible, and to the left, a small digital scale sits on the table. The overall lighting is soft and warm, creating a cozy atmosphere.
